

I live in Indiana and have my name on the state's no-call list. Please don't take our choice away from us. My phone and phone number belong to me and I should be able to determine who calls and for what reason. Why waste mine, and a tele-marketer's time when it can be avoided.